Racial equity. In 2019, Bread for the World Institute has focused on sharing our research on the relationship between hunger, poverty and race in the United States. The Institute released a special report, Applying a Racial Equity Lens to U.S. Federal Nutrition Policies: SNAP, WIC and Child Nutrition. It outlines policy recommendations that will improve the impact of national nutrition programs, specifically in communities of color. The Institute collaborated with more than 60 people in 20 organizations to complete this work.

The Institute utilized a Racial Wealth Gap Learning Simulation it created to help individuals understand the connection between racial equity and hunger. Staff shared the Racial Wealth Gap Simulation with more than 1,000 people from congregations, universities, and community organizations. The simulation reached hundreds of participants at anti-hunger conferences in Florida over the spring and summer. In Ohio, the simulation was conducted weekly in partnership with the Christian Missionary Alliance Urban Plunge program. In Illinois, Metamora Mennonite Church (a white, rural congregation) partnered with Zion Baptist church (a black, urban congregation) to conduct the simulation and help build a bridge between their congregations with a common focus on ending hunger.

2020 Hunger Report. Bread for the World Institute staff developed the 2020 Hunger Report, which will highlight existing and emerging issues in nutrition including the prevalence of undernutrition, stunting and wasting, and obesity. The report will propose changes to food systems that will help to prevent and treat malnutrition. The report will also explore how racial and gender equity and climate change impact global nutrition. The report will be launched by May 2020 and will be used as a resource during our advocacy on new global nutrition programs, reauthorization of the Global Food Security Act Reauthorization (2023), and the next Farm Bill (which we expect to be addressed by the end of 2024).

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b, Program Service Accomplishments:

Outreach & Advocacy:

Bread for the World Institute received grant funding to co-chair a coalition to educate Members of Congress and their staff to build support for the International Financial Institutions (IFIs)/Multilateral Development Banks (the World Bank, the African Development Bank and the International Fund for Agricultural Development). These institutions provide much-needed funding and technical assistance for agriculture, rural development and food security. In 2019 we established the coalition, holding monthly meetings. We also organized events on Capitol Hill and introduced the coalition to officials at the Department of Treasury and the IFIs.

As part of Black August, the Institute partnered with Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Washington D.C. to host a Reentry Simulation on the connection between hunger and mass incarceration. The Public Policy:

Institute staff are also working with partner organizations to ensure that USAID's leadership and nutrition teams continue implementation of USAID's Multi-sectoral Nutrition Strategy to accelerate progress on nutrition. This means incorporating nutrition goals into much larger programs of work, such as agriculture, health, and humanitarian assistance. On August 29, the newly created USAID Nutrition Leadership Council met with the community for the first time.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Controller and Director of Finance compare the Federal Form 990 to the audited financial statements. All variances are verified against schedules to determine that they are correct.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

On an annual basis, members of the Board of Directors sign a new conflict of interest statement. Any possible conflicts listed are reviewed by the Vice-President of Finance and Administration to determine if they truly reflect a conflict. If so, the statements are discussed with the audit committee. If the committee believes that conflict is real, the Board member is asked to either resign from the Board of Directors or stop the activity that is creating the conflict.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

The Institute does not directly hire or compensate employees. All employees are employees of Bread of the World, Inc. (BREAD), a related organization exempt under Section 501(c)(4).

Periodically, BREAD's Human Resource Department receives general market data from an outside compensation consultant to determine if salaries are in line with organizations of similar mission and/or size. A more thorough market analysis of compensation specific positions is provided by an outside compensation consultant on an ad hoc basis.

The President's salary is reviewed by the Board of Directors of a periodic basis. This is discussed and documented in the executive session. These notes are kept by the Board Secretary and are not open to the public. However, the Board of Directors does seek the same independent comparison data for the President that BREAD seeks for all other staff (including other members of the Executive Team).

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19:

The Institute's website includes governance and financial information. Several charity and business rating sites, such as the Better Business Bureau and Charity Navigator, also post these documents and additional information. The Institute also makes information available to the public upon request.
