

Georgia

A Hunger and Poverty Snapshot

Between 2019-2021:

- Food insecurity in Georgia averaged 9.90%.<sup>1</sup>
- Georgia’s food insecurity rate was 0.5% lower than the national average of 10.4%.<sup>2</sup>
- The official poverty rate (which does not account for income from safety-net and tax-support programs such as SNAP, EITC, and others) in the state averaged 13.1%.<sup>3</sup>
- But using the Supplemental Poverty Measure (which does include safety-net and tax-support income), the poverty rate falls to 10.2%.<sup>4</sup> In other words, these programs reduced the poverty rate in Georgia by 22% and the number of people living in poverty decreased by 302,000.<sup>5</sup>
- SNAP, alone, lifted 339,000 people above the poverty line in Georgia, including 160,000 children, per year between 2013 and 2017, on average.<sup>6</sup>

Why Bread for the World is Focused on the Farm Bill

The Farm bill is scheduled to be reauthorized in 2023. No legislation has more impact than a farm bill on the US food system and the nation’s ability to provide healthy food at affordable prices to everyone.

Bread for the World’s farm bill priorities include a focus on nutrition, equity, and sustainability. We believe Georgia has a lot to gain from a farm bill legislated with these priorities in mind.

Nutrition	Equity	Sustainability
Bread for the World supports strengthening SNAP in Georgia. Not only is SNAP the flagship food security and nutrition program, it is indispensable to better health outcomes and economic prosperity. In 2021, 15% of Georgia residents were helped by SNAP.<sup>11</sup> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Roughly 505,900 workers in Georgia live in households that participated in SNAP in 2021.<sup>12</sup></li> <li>• SNAP helps 1 in 9 workers in Georgia put food on the table.<sup>13</sup></li> <li>• 73% of SNAP participants were in families with children, and 32% in families with members who are older adults or are disabled.<sup>14</sup></li> <li>• 84% of all SNAP-eligible people in Georgia participate in the program.<sup>15</sup></li> </ul>	Bread for the World supports farm policies that promote a more equitable food system in Georgia. The Georgia population is 59% white. According to the most recent Census of Agriculture, 96% of farmers and ranchers (producers) in Georgia are white and occupy 97% of all farmland.<sup>16</sup> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Black producers represent 4% and occupy 2% of farmland.</li> <li>• Hispanic producers represent 1% and occupy &lt;1% of farmland.</li> </ul>	Bread for the World is committed to eradicating food insecurity by building a more sustainable food system in Georgia. Reducing unnecessary food waste is one way to build a more sustainable food system. In 2019, 2.6 million tons<sup>17</sup> of surplus food in Georgia went to waste instead of reaching those who needed it, an amount equal to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 4.18 billion meals unsold or uneaten.<sup>18</sup></li> <li>• $13.5 billion in lost sales.<sup>19</sup></li> <li>• Annual CO2 emissions produced by 189,828,394 gasoline-powered cars.<sup>20,21</sup></li> </ul>
